SUMMARY

I am P. Harshavardana Reddy, originally from Vijayawada. Currently, I am a sophomore student at KL University. I take pride in my 2-star rating on CodeChef, demonstrating my proficiency in coding. Alongside my academic pursuits, I've successfully completed a skill development project on Python Full Stack Development (PFSD). Additionally, I've assumed leadership roles, serving as a Team Lead for a Social Internship organized by KLSAC. As part of my commitment to knowledge sharing, I've acted as a Peer Mentor for Automata Theory Formal Languages and am presently engaged in mentoring students in Advanced Object-Oriented Programming and Data-Driven Artificial Intelligence. I am eagerly seeking internship opportunities to further expand my skills and contribute meaningfully to the field.
